Dear Parents,

Over the course of this school year, I will video tape several lessons in class. It is my hope to use some of this footage to help other teachers (DVD and Internet.) I may also stream our class live on the Internet. Any live streaming will be password protected so that only parents and others with permission will have access to watch our class live. In order to use shots of your child, I need you to fill in and sign the following Standard Model Release Form. Please understand that neither your child's last name nor any personal information (address, phone number, etc.) about your child will be disclosed to the public. Please sign and return this form to school tomorrow.

Thank you,
